St. Paul Municipal Athletics 2011 Adult Touch Football League Information

Minnesota Sports Federation rules apply with the following exceptions:

1. Games ending in a tie will remain tied in league play.
2. Two (2) 20 minute halves running time with the last two minutes of each half stop time.
3. Two (2) time outs per half.
4. Game Ball: Men – regulation size football (properly inflated)
5. Teams may begin a game with 6 players, no less. If a team starts with 7 players and one player is injured and unable to play, the team may finish with 6 players. However, if a team drops to 6 players because of an ejection, the game will result in a forfeit.
6. Players may play on as many teams in the same classification during league play; but may not play in more than one classification or on two teams on the same night.
7. Rosters must be filled out completely and given to the official before your first game. Additions must be made in writing and include players name, address, signature and team name. Additions must be made before the halfway point of the season.
